Forgiveness Committee for Allegations of Vandalism with Furniture

On the 6th of December 2022, an allegation of vandalism involving furniture came to light at the college.

The allegation was that some students from class B.Com. 11th had engaged in vandalism with the furniture in the college. They were accused of removing classroom furniture and engage in activities that damaged it.

To verify the veracity of the matter, the college principal and other committee officials examined the CCTV footage. In the footage, it was revealed that some students from B.Com. 11th were found guilty.

The committee requested written apologies from all the students involved and issued a warning that in the future, if any student is found guilty of such misconduct, appropriate disciplinary action would be taken against them.
